Frank Blackwood CCIM MLPD

Area of Expertise

Frank Blackwood is a Senior Vice President for Colliers in Houston focusing on industrial brokerage & advisory services.

Frank specializes in industrial, land, and investment real estate brokerage for the greater Gulf Coast region. Frank primarily helps businesses, investors, and developers achieve their goals through selling, acquiring, and leasing industrial facilities. Frank is a specialist in site acquisitions, build to suit and design build facilities, along with experience in land sales for both speculative and owner-occupied development.

Frank brings a wealth of land and industrial expertise including site selection for large industrial and projects in all asset classes as well as landlord and tenant representation for dock-high distribution, cold storage facilities, crane served manufacturing sites and IOS stabilized yards.

Frank has closed over $500 million in transactions throughout Texas, having worked with clients both locally and internationally.

Business and educational background

Frank holds a master's degree in Land and Property Development, (MLPD), from Texas A&M University in College Station and a BBA in International Business from Stephen F. Austin State University. During his time at Texas A&M University he was a recipient of the Commercial Real Estate Scholarship Award.

Prior to joining Colliers, Frank was an industrial broker with Capital Real Estate Commercial and most recently served as a Principal and Senior Director at Lee & Associates. Before getting into the commercial real estate industry, Frank was the International Sales Manager at U.S. Zinc and COO of Global Filtration, a company that focused on the commercial aviation/aerospace industry with 2,000 customers in 40 countries.

Community Involvement

Frank is deeply involved in international mission work and is the founder of Every Village, a nonprofit organization partnering with the people of South Sudan.

Frank also chaired the Sudanese Peace Conference, playing a crucial role in the formation of the Republic of South Sudan.
