Personal Accountability Statement

Crystal Melville is a Graduate of Liberty University Theological Seminary. She is a Marketplace Chaplain, Mastery Teacher and Founder of Crystal Melville Ministries, where she ministers through her writings, Pastoral Counseling, Life Coaching, and Transmedia, offering non-bias, and non-conforming views on every issue encompassed in life.

Ms. Melville has made it her business to volunteer and lend her skills, wisdom and empathetic heart to serve in her communities in the U.S. Virgin Islands, Florida, Virginia and Georgia, in the areas of Education and Healthcare, serving as a licensed nurse in areas of Pediatrics, labor and Delivery, Geriatrics, Hospice, volunteering as a School Nurse, Counselor, and Life Coach. She is knowledgeable on government policies, in healthcare, women and youth services particularly in distressed areas, and the rehabilitation of the disabled.

To Ms. Melville's credit, she has published several books through a biblical worldview, concerning family, parenting, autobiographical works, audio, and visual poetry. Her passion is teaching and edifying the body of Christ, and winning souls for his kingdom.
